

Treat Yourself to One Last Summer Vacation

August 13th, 2010

Leave a comment

August usually means summer's over; it's back to school time! But those of us lucky enough to live here in the Good Ol' South, (RoadRUNNER's main office is in NC) enjoy great riding weather on in to the month of October. That means more time for "day-cations" and weekend motorcycling trips! And if you have a few days off, one place to check out is the Stonewall Jackson Hotel in Staunton, Virginia. Many may already know Stonewall because it was home to MSTA's STAR Rally in 2009 and it happens to be nestled in some of the country's best riding area! They're running a special Born to be Pampered package for motorcyclists now through October.

The package includes:

- Overnight accommodations
- Full breakfast for two
- Free attached covered parking
- $20 gift certificate to Wilderness Adventure, Staunton's own specialty outdoor shop
- National Geographic Trails illustrated map of the area
- The hotel is also a designated passport stamping location
- Prices start at $165 per couple

The Stonewall Jackson Hotel is ideal for bikers with attached covered parking (free for hotel guests), charming ambiance, and modern amenities like WiFi, a pool, exercise room, and laundry facilities. If you plan on staying in, there's a cozy lobby bar or you want to explore downtown Staunton, you can easily walk to any of the nearby 15 restaurants, galleries, studios, antique shops, etc... For reservations and more visit <http://www.stonewalljacksonhotel.com>